Jack Dalton: Scheme! Who said it was a scheme?

MacGyver: I did just now. Can you hear me? I know you Jack!

Jack Dalton: That hurts... That really hurts. I had a research, facts, figures...

MacGyver: No, no! You caught grow old bureaucrats thinking they attach eighty years on the golf game. A fountain of youth! Gimme a break!

Jack Dalton: Have you ever been cynical?

MacGyver: Alright. Let me explain something. This valley is a part of Kabulstan, a very hostile third world country that doesn't like strangers. This scheme of yours - whatever it is, it's not worth the risk.

Jack Dalton: Mac! The militay dictatorship of Kabulstan doesn't even care about this area. This is Ammukash valley, a real life Shangri-La.

MacGyver: Hey ouhoh! This is me you talking to... Mac, your old pal. I don't bite any of that stuff. Now what is the scheme?

Jack Dalton: Looking for a twitch?

MacGyver: Just answer the questions.

Jack Dalton: I found out there is a spring, there really is a fountain of youth. It's the water that keeps them young. The water, Amigo! See no twitch. I'm not lying.

MacGyver: We're leaving here you know that Jack, the helicopter is gonna be here in four hours.

Jack Dalton: Perfect! Plenty of time to get on down there, get some samples of the magic aqua.

MacGyver: Hey! I said we're leaving.

Jack Dalton: Mac I see only to serve mankind. You're looking at the next Louis Pasteur, Jonas Salk, Casimir Funk.

MacGyver: Casimir Funk?

Jack Dalton: He invented the vitamine pills. Look Phoenix borrowed expedition money, we're here...

MacGyver: Hey!

Jack Dalton: Oh it's just dust or something. Mac, there is something in the water, that makes people live longer. We caught to take samples.

MacGyver: You're up some more than improvement mankind, I know it... Deep inside I know it.

Jack Dalton: We caught four hours. It's a nice place. You come, you enjoy, we get the water, we're gone. Trust me. Please... Please... Please? It's a beautiful place. Come on.

Jack Dalton: Mukti! My lovely. Right on time.

MacGyver: Time for what?

Jack Dalton: MacGyver, an old buddy of mine.

Mukti: You are also from America?

MacGyver: Yeah.

MacGyver: Wait a minute! What's going on, we have agreement, sample of water and we're gone. Do you remember?

Jack Dalton: We gonna get permission.

MacGyver: What permission?

Jack Dalton: Water comes from special spring and Mir hasn't been too cooperative to give me access to the place. Fact is he hasn't even seen me until today.

MacGyver: I knew there was an itch. I knew it.

Jack Dalton: No problemo. Once I get eyeball to eyeball with his highness. Well you know me Mac. A man with a golden tongue.

MacGyver: Be at the crashsite on time or I'm leaving without you.

Mukti: Mr. MacGyver, you can not leave. Mir wish to see you also.

MacGyver: How he know I'm even here?

Mukti: Baba knows all. Please come.

MacGyver: And why should I be wanted?

Jack Dalton: Hey who knows, this is a mystical place. You caught go with flow.

MacGyver: Flow for me flow is that way.

Jack Dalton: Hey Mac! You wanna guess how old Mukti is?

MacGyver: No!

Jack Dalton: She's 42 years old... For mankind improvement.

MacGyver: Dalton tells me that Kabulstans leave you alone pretty much.

Mukti: It is truth. We never consider ourselves apart of Kabulstan. We are people of Amukash.

MacGyver: What about military?

Mukti: They have no presents here. We cover ourselves. I have magazine from America. I have dreamed going there since I was child.

MacGyver: It's a long way from Amukash.

Mukti: So Dalton told me. It's not to take long with his flying air machine.

MacGyver: Us?

Mukti: He taking me with you. Dalton says I would be continuation help in long generic project. He's sure it would be great improvement for mankind.

MacGyver: Jack?

Jack Dalton: This woman is final part of my presentation.

Jack Dalton: To the Phoenix board. She is living proof that water works.

MacGyver: Yes I'm sure she is.

Jack Dalton: You think I'm still snowing you, but you'll see Mac. You'll see.

Mukti: Baba this is a friend I met in site of fallen airship. And another followed him. Their names are Dalton and MacGyver. They want permission to get water from eternal spring.

Baba: And I why do you want this water?

Jack Dalton: I deliver with you, Sir. Obviously this stuff is pretty powerful. I mean look at these people. They are what... 125-150 old. Very old. And...

Baba: And...

Jack Dalton: Well I... Hmmm... I... Well we... Hmmm.

MacGyver: I think Mr. Dalton is trying to say that we want to take some water back to study. Analysing. He thinks it makes you live longer.

Baba: Have you been told that it is prohibited to visit that part of our valley where eternal spring emerges.

Mukti: Yes Baba I told them. But Dalton wants to there anyway. He searching water is pure there. More of jump in his words.

Baba: You may go. Mukti will you take there.

MacGyver: You all right?

Jack Dalton: Oh yeah.

Mukti: You did well Dalton.

Jack Dalton: I did, did I?

Mukti: Yes. You truly are man with golden tongue.

Jack Dalton: Did I ask about the rights?

MacGyver: Rights, what rights.

Jack Dalton: Hmm... Hmm, Phoenix business. I get them later.

Mukti: Is something wrong MacGyver?

MacGyver: Oh... Not yet. But I can feel it coming.

Baba: Have faith. He will solve our problem. It is written.

Jack Dalton: Stuff is so strong I can feel it working on way down. Twenty years from now and I'm fresh and sweet as I'm today! Drop those cans Mac.

MacGyver: This is crazy.

Mukti: 167

Jack Dalton: What I tell you Mac, incredible aha?

Mukti: He was 36 when your Abraham Lincoln was elected president.

MacGyver: That's kind hard to believe.

Jack Dalton: What was that?

Mukti: Devil's rumbling is reason why Baba had made this prohibited place.

Jack Dalton: Just because of ground rumbles?

Mukti: Also because some adventurers not returned... The water? It never stops flowing. This spring is eternal.

Jack Dalton: Oh come on. This must be somekind of joke aha.

Mukti: But why? Who wanted to do that?

Jack Dalton: Hundred million people and all in Beverly Hills. Where you're going?

MacGyver: Find the pump.

Mukti: But Many people have disappeared and Baba only granted permission go to the spring.
